1- Introduction

Q1- Enlighten the worldly life and the Eternal life has great influence upon our lifecycle?

ANS- As we all would know that human life is of two types

1. Worldly life for a limited period
2. Everlasting life of Hereafter.

The eternal and everlasting life is dependent upon the worldly life, as the way a person spends this worldly life will influence the eternal life. Thus, it is essential that he puts his utmost effort to keep his relationship with the Creator (Allah ﷻ) and the creation (Cabool) like the way the beloved Prophet ﷺ kept his. In other words, he should follow in the footsteps of Rasoolullah ﷺ in every aspect of his life, in all his actions, manners and traditions, until he turns out to be an ideal reflection of him (ﷺ).

It is great disgrace that the so-called Muslims are leaving the Islamic customs and traditions and adopting the life styles of enemies of Islam. This can be observed the way they talk, walk, eat, and drink, their behavior and manners. They have become so captivated that they also made their children and women follow that un-Islamic way of life, and brilliantly, they think that they are the true lovers of Allah ﷻ and the Prophet ﷺ.

Our respected brothers and sisters of Islam, particularly youngsters! Listen attentively! The King of Medina, the beloved Prophet ﷺ used to spend his days and nights in such a way that he never overlooked remembering Allah ﷻ. His behaviors and etiquette towards all kinds of creation used to be always forgiving and generous no matter he be a child or a grownup. It is this style of life, which will qualify us to be successful in this world and the Hereafter.

2- Preamble

Q2- Give a transitory account of science of fiqh and Fuqaha?

Ans- We find it appropriate to write a specific follow-up with regards to fiqh (Islamic Law/Shariah) and the Fuqaha (Islamic Jurist/Mujtahideen), so that one understands the absolute significance of this science of knowledge and recognizes the esteem role of the Fuqaha. There are more than 19 verses all over the Qur’an in which the word fiqh is cited in its various word-forms but which all have the same root word-fiqh.

Technical Meaning of Fiqh: It means to realize the ruling of Shariah from which they are derived – i.e. from the Qur’an, Hadith, Ijma’ (consensus of Jurists) and Qiyas (Analogy).

Imam Abu Hanifa has defined fiqh as ‘The understanding of those things which are beneficial for one’s self and which are not, i.e. to know what Halal or permissible and Haram is or not permissible’.

According to the Sufis, fiqh is the combination of both sacred knowledge and practice. He also states, “everything has a pillar (foundation) and pillar of Islam is the Knowledge of fiqh. For this reason Fuqaha have been given superiority and a higher degree over the Mufassireen and Muhaddiseen. There were few companions on whom Allah had bestowed astonishing power of memory and the power of inferring rulings from the Qur’an and the Sunnah.

They are:
1. Hardhat Abu Bakr Siddique.
3. Hardhat Othman ibn Afwan.
5. Hardhat Abdullah ibn Mas’aud.
6. Hardhat Abdullah ibn Abbas.

The rulings of fiqh were present at that time but not compiled, nor was this science of religion given any name. It was in the second century that the principles of this science of fiqh were laid out and complied. When we evaluate this compilation task of fiqh and those who spent unrelenting efforts in doing so, the name Imam Abu Hanifah comes to light with regards. Also, when we study some of the books on fiqh, we understand that even within those elite eight companions (Sahabah), there were two who had developed a unique status in the field of fiqh.

They are:
1. Hardhat Ali ibn Abi Talib, the Door of City of Knowledge.
2. Hardhat Abdullah ibn Mas’ud, Sayyid al-Fuqaha.

Note: The basic theme of compiling this book with English transliteration of Arabic is to benefit those brethren who are not able to recite Arabic at least for offering the 1st Pillar of Islam, Salah (prayer/namaaz) correctly, leave apart fasting (Rozah), Zakat and Haj.

3- FIVE PILLARS OF ISLAM

Q3- What do you know about Islam, Shari’at and Five Pillars of Islam?
Ans- Islam and Shari’at cover and include the following:

1. ‘Aqaaid (عقائد) or True Belief, Conviction, Creed, Doctrine and Faith.
2. ‘Ibadaat (عبادات) or Worship, Prayer and Service.
3. M’aamulaat (عمولات) or Transactions, Proceedings, Business and other deals.
4. M’aashrat (معاشرت) or way of life with all habits, manners, customs and behavior according to Sunnah or the Holy Prophet’s traditions.
5. Tasawwuf (تصوف) or Islamic mysticism or Sufism or Self-Purification or Tazkiya-tun-Nafs (تذکریه نفس), also classified as Akhlaqiyaat or Islamic Manners and morals including habits, behavior, devotional exercise and Zikr (زکر) etc.

- A Muslim becomes a good Momin by learning and practicing the above five traits of Shariah, according to Sunnah and by leaving off all sins and Bid'aat (بدعات).

FIVE PILLARS OF ISLAM
According to Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, Islam is based on five Pillars or (Arkaan) of Islam;

1. Iman (Ash-Shahaadah); Declaration of Faith! Laa ilaahai ill- Allah, Muhammadur-Rasoolullah. (There is nothing worthy of worship but Allah, Muhammad ﷺ is the true Prophet and last Messenger (خاتم نبين) of Allah.

2. Salah (نماز); Compulsory prayers (Salah), five times everyday.

3. Zakat (زکات); Payment of purifying dues. All Muslims must give Zakah to the poor folk and those who are in need of our community.

4. Saum (صوم); fasting in the month of Ramadhan (رمضان).

5. Hajj (حج); Hajj is Pilgrimage to the Ka’abah in Makkah at least once in a lifetime by the Muslims who can find a way to do so.

(Bukhari & Muslim)

Note; Deen-e-Islam and Shari’at (Islamic Law or fiqh) are the most moderate and balanced way of life which provides kindness and betterment to an individual and society at large. It does not allow any type of extremist or terroristic behavior.

Q5- What do you understand by Faith of Islam?

Ans- the Faith of Islam; The Iman is an Arabic word, it means complete trust in someone (firm Conviction). If you have faith in someone, you believe in him with all your heat, and you do not have any doubt about it. Imam is a state in which heart accept the Truth and believe in it. The lips and tongue declare the Truth (that faith or Iman is light and doubt is Darkness) the truth and Limb carryout what the truth requires for a person to express the Kalama Tayyab or Kalama Shahadaat by tongue and testify by heart. This is initially essential to accept Islam and convert as a Muslim, (For a dumb person, it is enough to testify Kalama by positive gesturing). One must believe in following articles of faith called ‘Arkaan-ul- Iman” or “Pillar of Faith.” They are 1-Iman-e-Mujmil and 2- Iman-e-Mufsil!

1. Iman-e-Mujmal (馨) or Faith in Brief;

Aamantu Billahi kama huwa bi-asmaa-i-hi wa qabiltu jamee’a ahkaamihi iqraarum billisani wa tasdeequm bilqalb

[I solemnly believe in Allah, with all His names and attributes’ and I have accepted (to obey) all His command (of Shari’ah) by admitting them with tongue and believing them with my heart]

1. Iman-e-Mufassal (馨) or Faith in Detail

Aamanto billahi wa malaakatihi wa kutubihi wa Rusoolihi wa yaum-il-aakhir wal qadri khaithi wa sharrihi min Allahi T’aala wal b’athihi b’adal maut.

[I solemnly believe in Allah and His angels and all His revealed books and His Messengers or Prophets and in the day of resurrection and judgment, destiny and fate (good or bad) from Allah , and rebirth after death].

5-DEFINITIONS OF TERMINOLOGIES OF FIQH

Q6-Define the four types of evidences to form the various levels of the commissions and the omission in the Islamic law (Shariah)?

Ans- Following are the four kinds of evidences;

1. Define in proof and definite in its meaning and application (Qata’i-ul-Suboot-o-Qata’i-ud-Dalalah).
2. Definate in proof and probable in meaning and application (Qata’i-il-Suboot-o-Zanni-ud-Dalalah).
3. Probable in proof and definite in meaning and application (Zanni-us-Suboot-o-Qata’i-ud-Dalalah).
4. Probable in proof and probable in meaning and application (Zanni-us-Suboot-o-Zanni-ud-Dalalah).

Levels of Demand: The Demands are of three levels:
1. Obligator demand (Fardh).
2. Strong demand (Wajib).
3. Recommendatory demand (Sunnat).

These four kinds of evidences and three levels of Demands based on which, every, Legal Value of Primary Law is decided.

Q7-How many possible Ranks or Levels could be established in Shariat (Law) of Islam?
An: - Ultimately, following eleven (11) Ranks are established on different modes and accepted by scholars of Fiqh, i.e., five on Positive Demand or Amr, five on Negative Demand or Nahi and one common for both ‘no demand or Mubah’.

Positive Demand (Amr) Negative Demand (Nahi)
1. Obligatory (Fardh) 1. Forbidden (Haram)
2. Imperative (Wajib) 2. Condemned (Mukru-e-Tehrimi)
3. Mandatory (Sunnat-e-Moakkida) 3. Disapproved (Asahat)
4. Directory (Sunnat-e-Ghair-Moakkida) 4. Improper (Mukru-e-Tanzhi)
5. Commendable (Mustahib) 5. Uncommendable (Khilaf-e-Aula)

(Common) No demand (Mubah) or (Discretion/ Indifference)

Each level of Law, mentioned above, is established through many modes and the words of Quran and Hadith basing on the meaning and application, Proof and Dalala.

One may see that there are five Ranks on positive side and five Ranks on negative. Total ten (10) levels, the eleventh level is Mubah (discretion), which is common on either side.
Let this be clear, that no system of the Jurisprudence of this world can be comparable to the Jurisprudence provided by Islam.

Q8- Define the following ranks of commission (امر)?
Ans- Following are the definitions;
1. Fardh: - is definite in proof and definite in its meaning and application (Qata’i-ul-Suboot-o-Qata’i-ud-Dalalah). It means, there shouldn’t be any doubt in its proof. One who refutes it, be called Kafer (Infidel) and who act not, without genuine excuse, be treated as Fasiq (Offender) and will be deserved for severe chastisement of Lord.
2. Wajib: - is definite in proof and probable in meaning and application (Qata’i-il-Suboot-o-Zanni-ud-Dalalah). It means, there shouldn’t be any doubt in its proof. One who refutes it, be called not Kafer (Infidel). But who act not, without genuine excuse, be treated as Fasiq (Offender) and will be deserved for chastisement of Lord.
3. Sunnah: - is Probable in proof and definite in meaning and application (Zanni-us-Suboot-o- Qata’i-ud-Dalalah). Which Rasoolullah ﷺ had done or directed to act upon.

4. Nafil: - is Probable in proof and probable in meaning and application (Zanni-us-Suboot-o-Zanni-ud-Dalalah). It means, its inference evidenced by Sh’ariah. One who act upon it, will be rewarded and who act not, will not be chastised. It is also called Musta’hib (Commendable).

Q9- Define the kinds of Fardh (فرض) and Sunnah (سنت)?

Ans- Kinds of Fadh: There are following two kinds of Fardh!

1. Precise Obligation (Fardh-e-Ain); whose performance by all persons (men & women) is indispensable

2. General Obligation (Fardh-e-Kifaya); whose performance by an adequate number absolves all. If nobody performs, then all be sinful.

Kinds of Sunnah: There are following two kinds of Sunnah!

1. Mandatory (Sunnat-e-Moakkida); such a deed that Rasoolullah ﷺ performed always or directed to perform. Has not been evaded without excuse. Thus, evading in the absence of genuine excuse is disgraceful.

2. Directory (Sunnat-e-Ghair-Moakkida); such a deed that Rasoolullah ﷺ performed often and left off rarely even without proper excuse. Leaving off such Sunnah is not sin and performing it is virtuous and better than Commendable (Mustahib) deed.

Q10- Define the following ranks of omission (نهي)?

Ans- Following ranks of omission (نهي):

1. Forbidden (Haram); is Definite in proof and definite in its meaning and application (Qata’i-ul-Suboot-o- Qata’i-ud-Dalalah). It means, there shouldn’t be any doubt in its proof. One who refutes it, be called Kafer (Infidel) and who perfomes, without genuine excuse, be treated as Fasiq (Offender) and will be deserved for severe chastisement of the Lord.

2. Condemned (Mukru-e-Tehrimi); is definite in proof and probable in meaning and application (Qata’i-il-Suboot-o-Zanni-ud-Dalalah). It means, there shouldn’t be any doubt in its proof. One who refutes it, be called not Kafer (Infidel). But who act on it, without genuine excuse, be treated as Fasiq (Offender) and will be deserved for chastisement of the Lord.

8-BATH OR GHUSL
(TAHARAT BY BATH)

Q: Define Hadath-e-Akbar which demands adults to take bath as Fardh for?
Ans: Hadath-e-Akbar (Major Impurity); refers to those things that necessitate taking bath for (men & women) of whole body as Fardh (Obligation);
1. When an adult man has sex, emission of semen,

Hazrat Aisha  narrates, “Whenever Rasoolullah  bathe after being in the state of Janaba. He used to commence by washing his hands. Then he performed Wuzu in the same manner as arid out before Salah. He then dips his blessed fingers in water and dampen the root of his hair. Next, he would pour a handful of water over his head three times and finally pour water over the entire body.

(Bukhari)

9- Islamic way of taking the Bath:

Q16- Describe the Islamic way of taking Bath or Ghusl?

Ans- According to Islamic Shariah following is the way of taking Bath for adults (men & women); Begin with Bismillah and Nyyah or intent solely for Allah .

 ثَوْبِي فَانْتَظِرِي نَنْسَلُ مِنْ عَسَلِ الْجَنَابَةِ وَلْوَقِعَ الْحَذِيثُ إِلَيْهِ تَعَلَّى مِنْ عَسَلِ الإِسْلَامِ

Then perform the following Fardh acts of Ghusl;

1. Cleanse the mouth with water.
   Note: This means, Wash the mouth so that every single part of the inside, from the beginning of the lips up to the throat is cleaned with water. Water must reach the gaps between teeth, the gums, all sides of the tongue and the edge of the throat. Otherwise the Ghusl will not be counted.

2. Rinsing the nostrils from within with water.
   Note: This means, to sniff-up water into both nostrils until it reaches the soft part; not leaving a hair or its equivalent dry, otherwise the Ghusl will not count.

3. Have the water poured over the entire body without leaving un-wetted part, not even a hair.
   Note: This means, to make sure the water reaches the entire body up to and including the soles of feet, ensuring that every hair and every pimple is washed. If only one hair or its equaling remains dry, Ghusl will not count.

➢ Remember, there are following four Sunnah of Ghusl or Bath should be carried out:

   1. Washing both hands and up to wrists.
   2. Washing a cleaning the private parts.
   3. Performing Wadhu or Ablution for Taharat or purification.
   4. Allowing water to flow over entire body three times.
   5. It is Sunnah to take bath for Friday Salah, Edain Salah and in the ‘Arafat for Haji.

➢ There are few Disliked or Makroohaat-al-Ghusl acts which may be avoided:

   1. Wasting of water or use of too little water leaving the Bath doubtful.
   2. Talking, singing or recitation in Bathroom unless required and necessary.
   3. Facing Ka’aba in Makkah and not following prescribed sequence of taking Bath.
10-TAYAMUM OR DRY-ABLUTION

Q17- Under what circumstances and through which means the Tayyamum can be carried out?

Ans- Conditions to perform Tayyamum or Dry-Ablution:

1. The water not accessible within one and half K.M. distance.
2. There is threat of rising illness by using water, fear to collect water due to enemy or vexatious animal etc.
3. No availability of water for Ablution (Wadhu) or Bath (Ghusl) or the quantity of available water is hardly suffice for drinking.
4. Water washing makes you sick or increase any illness.
5. Then only Dry-Ablution can be performed.
6. Tayyamum is permissible to perform using things which are from the genus o the earth, which do not melt, burn or rust e.g. pure earth, soil, clay, dirt, sand, stone, limestone, clay pots, baked and unbaked bricks, stone or brick walls, multani soil, dusty cloth or wood etc.

Q18- Describe the Islamic way of performing Tayyamum with the useful ruling of it?

Ans- There are three Fardh (obligation) in Tayyamum as follows:

Begin with first, Nyyah or Intention, as it is imperative to make firm intention by heart saying, “I intent to attain purification through Tayyamum, solely for the sake of Allah ﷺ.

1- Then, Bismillah recited. Next Strike both hands, slightly with the fingers wide open on anything which is of the earth’s genre, like the pure earth (or sand, brick, stone or concrete wall etc.). Then extra dust should be shaken off by striking the sides of the thumbs of one hand with another. The entire face should be wiped using both hands and fingers be passed though the beard in such a way that no area remain untouched. If even a hair is left untouched, otherwise Tayyamum will become invalid.

2- Reforming to Masah. Strike again both the hands on the earth and shake off the excess dust. Then, Masah of the right arm should be performed by passing inner side of the four fingers (with the exception of the thumb) of the left hand on the outer side of the right forearm, starting from the tip of finger up to and including elbow. Then, the palm on the inner side of the right forearm should be rubbed, starting from just above the elbow down to wrist-joint. Care should be taken not to leave even a hair untouched, otherwise Tayyamum will be incomplete.

3- Next the thumb of the left hand should be passed on the upper side thumb of the right hand. The same manner should be applied when doing the Masah of left arm using the right hand. Lastly, the fingers of one hand should be passed through the fingers of other

4- Ruling; One Tayyamum is sufficient for Ablution and Bath (Ghusl) when latter is Fardh or Obligatory. Tayyamum is nullified when the reasons as mentioned for the Wadhu (in secton-7) and automatically when the cause like illness, lack of water etc. is ended.
Tayyamum for Ghusl is the same as the one for Wudhu. There is no difference between them. It is not necessary for those upon whom Ghusl is Fardh (obligatory) to perform Tayyamum twice; one for Ghusl and one for Wudhu. Rather if a person should make the intention for both or for only one, it is still sufficient. Tayyamum becomes invalid for the same reason Wadhu and Ghusl become invalid. Furthermore, Tayyamum become void on finding water and the ability to use it.

11-Wiping over Leather Socks
(Maozown par Masah)

Q19- What is the pre-conditions to allow for wiping over leather socks (موز؟)?
Ans- There are several pre-conditions for wiping over leather Socks;
1. The Leather Socks should be such that they cover the ankles. If part of the ankle is expose equivalent to the width of one or two fingers, then wiping over such leader socks is allowed so, as long as the heel is not open.
2. The Leather Socks should fit tightly on the foot so that it is easy to walk in them.
3. The Leather Socks should be made from animal’s skin or at least the sole should be made from animal skin and the rest from a thick material.
4. The Leather Socks should be worn after having performed Wadhu.
5. Leather socks should not be worn in the state of impurity and they should be removed after a person becomes in need of Ghusl.
6. They should be worn within the allotted time period. For a non-travelled, 1 is one day and one night and the time period for a traveler is three days and three night.
7. No leather sock should have a tear larger than the size of three toes. This means that an area equivalent to three toes should not visible whilst waking. If the tear is the size of three toes but the area of three toes is visible whilst walking, then wiping over such leather socks is permissible. Alternatively, if there are tears in both the leather socks and if compared, the tears would cover the size of three fingers or more, then wiping over such leather socks would still be valid. If the layer becomes undone, then the same rule applied.

Q20-Dscribe the procedure or wiping over the Leather Socks and over the parts Wudhu?
Ans- Procedure of Wiping (Masha) over Leather Socks; Three completely wet fingers of hand should be passed once from the top of toe of foot up to ankle. This would repeated for the other foot by three wet fingers of other hand.
Wiping over the parts washed in Wudhu; if there is a wound on the limb, a boil, bandage or other illness and passing water over that part causes severe pain or difficulty, then that part should be covered with a cloth and a wet hand should be passed over the cloth. If this also increases the pain, then a person is free from wiping that limb.
12-Impurities
(Najasat)

Q21-Enlighten the types of impurities (Najasat) with their remedies?
Ans-Types of Impurities; mainly, there are two types of impurities;

A) Real impurity or Najasat- Haqiqi; which is visible like, Stool, animal droppings, Urine, alcohol etc.

B) Effective-Impurity or Najasat- Hukmi; which is not visible but proved by Shariah (Islamic Law) like, the impurity because of no Wudhu, impurity which need Ghusl.

Both the main impurities are further divided into two more forms each, they are;

A) Real impurity or Haqiqi Najasat; this is further divided into two forms;

1. Najasat-e-Ghaliza or Core Impurity; whose ruling is severe.
   Core Impurities; Human urine & stool, Animal droppings, Urine & stool of the animals whose meat is unlawful or Haram, Flowing blood of Human and Animals, all types of Alcohol, droppings of those birds that cannot fly like hens, ducks etc.

Forgivable quantity of Najasat-Ghalizah;
   a) If the impurity is thick like Stool or Animal droppings that stuck on any part of body or clothing is less of 3.5 gram of weight then it is forgivable and the Salah is valid with the presence of that impurity. If the impurity is of more than prescribed weight of 3.5 gram, the Salah is invalid lest it should be cleaned before offering the Salah.
   b) If the impurity is liquid like Urine or Alcohol, then it is Forgivable up to areas of size one rupee coin.

2. Najasat-e-Khafifah or Negligible Impurity; whose ruling is lenient.
   Negligible impurities; Urine of Animals whose flesh is permitted (Halal) to consume, Droppings of Birds whose flesh is forbidden (Haram) to consume.

Forgivable quantity of Najasat- Khafifah; The Small-Impurity if it is stuck on any part of the body or any part of the clothing and is less than a quarter of that part of the Clothing or the body upon which it is stuck, then this is forgivable and the Salah is Valid with the presence of that impurity.

Caution; forgiving means, that the Salah would be valid, if it is performed with so Much impurity, but then it will be a Makruh (Improper) act. Hence, tolerating so-much impurity intentionally is incorrect.

Method of cleansing Najasat-e-Ghalizah and khafifa; if the impurities are solid or liquid, then to clean them with water three times and squeezed (نچوڑنﺎ) them forcefully on each wash will purify them .If the object is such that it cannot be squeezed, then washing three time and left to dry until water ceases to dip. This method should be applied three times and in the third time, the object will become Clean. The clay pots or buckets will also become clean if they are washed three times and dried up.
B) Effective-Impurity or Najasat-e-Hukmiah; There are two types of Najasat-Hukiah or effective-Impurity, they are; 1. Hadath-e-Asghar 2. Hadath-e-Akbar

1. Hadath-e-Asghar or Minor Impurity; those things which break the Wuzu. Kindly refer to Q-11, for details.

2. Hadath-e-Akbar or Major Impurity; those things which necessitate taking Ghusl or Bath and Wudhu or Ablution of whole body as Fardh (Obligatory). Kindly refer to Q-13 for details.

- Method of cleansing Najasat-e-Asghar; this will become pure by performing Wudhu.

After Azan, supplicate the Dua as follows:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبِّ هذِهِ الدُّعَوَّاتَ التَّامةَةَ وَالصِّلْوَاةَ الْقَائِمَةَ أَتُّمْ مَحْمُودَ الوُسْيَةَ وَالضَّيَاءَةَ وَالدِّرَجَةَ الرَّفيعةَ وِيْعْنِيُهُ مَقَايِمَ مَحْمُودَ اِلْدَّيْدِ وَعَدْتُمُ وَأَزْرَفْتُمُ السَّقَاطَةَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةَ. إِنَّا لَ نَخْلُفُ الْمُبَيِّدَ.

(O Allah! Lord of this perfect call of the Salah. Of the Salh be offered presently, grant Muhammad the way of approach and rights of intercession, eminence, distinction and highest class in Paradise, and raise him to the glorious position and rank You have promised him, and afford us his intercession on the day of Judgment. Surely, You never go back on your word or promise.)

Ans- If and when any one or more of the above mentioned Wajibaat or Mandatory of the Salah are left out by mistake, Such omission can compensated by doing Sajdah-e-Sahw; For this act, One should perform single Salam by turning head to the right after the At-Tahiyyaat, then perform two Sajdah and sit back in last Q’aiqah and recite Durood- Ibrahim, Dua, and finally two Salaams as usual to end the Salah. Otherwise, if you miss doing Sajdah Sahw, the Salah must be repeated.

Rules relating to Sajdah-e-Sahw;
1. If numerous Wajib were missed in a Salah the two prostrations in the form of Sajdah-e-Sahu are sufficient.
2. If the Wajib is missed in the Jum’aah Salah or the Eid Salah and there is a large congregation, it is better not to perform Sajdah-e-Sahu.
3. If a person began to think about the Qur’an Quran or make a pause in any action of Salah and in doing so, spend a duration equivalent to repeating ‘Subhan Allah’ three times, then he must perform Sajdah-e-Sahw.
4. If a Muqtadi (in a Jam’aat Salah) makes a mistake which necessitates Said-e-Sahw, then Sajdah-e-Sahu is not Wajib and nor is it Wajib upon him to repeat his Salah either.
5. If the Sajdah-e-Sahw, the Sajdah-e-Tilawat were not performed and the person had finished his Salah then as long the person does not talk or leave the prayer hall, he can still perform the aforementioned Sajdah-e-Sahw.

Allah ﷺ SAYS’ “Establish regular Salah “Observing of Salah, five time a day is compulsory on free sane (‘Aaqil) Muslims, above the age of Puberty (Balegh). No Muslim should avoid them or delay them, without a valid reason.

1. Qiyaam: A Muslim, after completion of Ablution (Wadhu), stand at a cleansed place facing towards Qiblah (ka’aba) with an intention (Niyyah) in his heart to perform Salah.

2. Takbir-e-Tahrima; Then, both the hands be raised up to the earlobes (bb the men) and upto the shoulders (by the women) and say the ”Takbir“, “Allahu Akbar” (Allah is Great) With his eyes at the place of Sajdah or prostration,

سُبْحَانَكَ الَّهُمَّ وَبِحْمَدِكَ وَبِثَانِيَكَ اسْمُكَ وَتَعَالَ لِي جَدُّكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنفُقَانَا

Subhanakalla humma a bhamdka wa tabaarakasmuka wa ta’ala jadduka wala ilaha ghairu.

Also, in reply e recites رَبِّ تَأْتِيكَ الْحَمْدَ (Rabana lakal hamd, Our Lord, Praise be to You).

8. Prostration: He now prostrates saying، الله أَكْبَرُ (Allahu Akar), seven bones touching the ground with forehead, nose, both palms, both knee with the toes pointing to Qiblah. In this position, a man must keep his elbows above the ground and away from his body a woman not to raise the rear portion of her body but keep it resting on calves.

(Namaaz-e-Witr Padne ka Tariqa)

Q39- Elucidate the difference between Fardh and Wajib, Sunnat and Nafil Salah?

Ans- Fardh and Wajib Salah:

- There is no much difference between Fardh (Obligatory) and Wajib (Mandatory) Salah except the ranking (Fardh is highest and Wajib is higher). Both- Salah have to be performed necessarily within prescribed time and by any reason, if you couldn’t do them on time then, you will have to essentially ensure (performing) their Qadha (late Salah).

But a woman will join hands on her chest.
4. Then, recite Dua-e-Qunoot,

اَللَّهُمَّ اِنَا نَتَسْعَنُكَ وَنَتَسْفَرَكَ وَنَتَوَلَّكَ وَنَتْبَغَلُ الْحَرَّرَ وَنَشْكُرُكَ وَلَا نَفْرَكَ وَنَخَلَلُ

بِنَّاكَ اَللَّهُمَّ باَلِكَافِرِينَ مُلْكُهُ ط inna nast’aenuka, wa nastaghfiruka, wa n’minu bika, wa natawakkalu ‘alayka, wa nuthni Allahumma

---

Q43- Elucidate the Islamic Uniqueness for Friday and its Salah?

Ans- Hardhat S’ad bin Mu’adh  narrates a Hadith that the Rasoolullah  said, “The day of Friday is the king of all days. It is the most esteemed day in the court of Allah  and is greater than Eid-ul-Adhha and Eid-ul-Fitr. It has five unique qualities;

1. Allah  created Hadhrat Adam  on this day.
2. Who also descended on the earth and passed away on this day.
3. This day contains a specific time in which Allah  grants whatever the servant asks for, provided it is not Haram.
4. On Friday, the Day of Judgment will take place.

Another Hadith;

Hadhrat Aws bin aws  narrates that the Rasoolullah  once said, “Friday is most superior from the rest of the days. On this day, send Durood up on me in abundance as it I presented directly to me.” The companions or Sahabah asked, “O prophet  how will our Durood be presented to you once you have passed away from this world?” He replied, Allah  has made this earth forbidden to eat the flesh of the Prophets or Ambiya. Thus the Prophets of Allah  are still alive and are being given sustenance.”

28- FIVE TIMES DAILY FARDH SALAH

(With Sunnah & Nafil Salah)

Q44- Describe the details of Rak’at in the Five daily Salah?

Ans- The details of Rak’at in the five daily Salah:

1. Fajr or early morning (one hour before sunrise) Salah; First two Rak’at Sunnat-e-Maukadah, then two Rak’ah Faraz, total 4 Rak’ats. The Sunnat-e-Maukadah (strongly recommended) of the Fajr Salah are emphasized in the Hadith, and if omitted or left out, these should be performed even after sunrises until the time of Zohr.

   The Timing of Fajr; starts few minutes after whiteness of Dawn to until sunrise, approximately one hour.
2. Zohr or early afternoon Salah; Four Rak‘at sunnat-e- Maukadah, then 4 Rak‘at Faraz, two Rak‘at Sunnat-e-Maukadah, two Rak‘at Nafil, total 12 Rak‘ats.

3. Assar or late afternoon Salah; 4 Rak‘at Sunnat-e-Ghair-Maukadah, then 4 Rak‘at Faraz.
   Note that no Nafil or Sunnah or Sajdah are allowed after the Asr salah until sunset.
   However, the time for Asr Salah begins as soon as the time for Zohr Salah finishes and ends twenty minutes before sunsets. If the salah is performed within the time, then it is termed as ‘kaamil or perfect Salah and if it is performed at close to sunset, it is termed as valid but ‘Naqis’ or imperfect.
   Hadith; Hazrat Umme Salma  narrates that Rasoolullah  has said, “Allah  shall make the fire of Hell unlawful upon a person who performs the four Rak‘at Sunnah before Faraz of Asr Salah.

4. Maghrib or the Sunset Salah; 3 Rak‘at Faraz, then 2 Rak‘at Sunnat-e-Maukadah, and two Rak‘at Nafil, total seven Rak‘ats.
   The Time; for Maghrib Salah starts as soon as the sunsets and finishes until dusk. Dusk is the twilight that is seen after the redness of the sun has disappeared. The duration for the Maghrib Salah is an average of one hour from the sunsets, but it is better to perform early as soon as sunsets.
   Hadith; Rasoolullah  said, “anyone who performs the two Rak‘at Sunnah immediately after the Faraz Salah of Maghrib without indulging in any worldly talk, his Salah is elevated to the station of Ellyn.”

5. Isha or Night Salah; First 4 Rak‘at Sunnat-e-Ghair Mu’akkadah, then 4 Rak‘at Faraz, 2 Rak‘at Sunnat-e-Mu’akkadah or mandatory, 2 Rak‘at Nafil, then 3 Rak‘at Wajib-e-Witr are performed (possibly along with Isha Salah or Traditionally after Tahajjud or late night Salah), finally 2 Rak‘at Nafil.
   Hadith; It is stated in a Hadith that if a person did not happen to wake up at night , then these two Rak‘ats Nafil shall be in place of the Tahajjud Salah.
   Hadith; Hazrat Abu Hurrah  narrates that the Rasoolullah  said, “The Witr Salah is true. Whoever does not perform it he is not from us, (he repeated this thrice).
   Rule; The Witr Salah is Wajib and to neglect it intentionally or unintentionally will necessitate a Qaza. If a Sahib-e-Tarteeb had the knoeledge that he had missed Witr, yet having sufficient time he missed it, his Fajr Salah will become invalid. This ruling applies regardless of remembering before or during the Fajr Salah.

Q45- Enlighten the terms, Sahib-e-Tarteeb, Adaa and Qaza in respect of performing the Salah?
Ans- Sahib-e-Tarteeb; to perform the five Salah including any Faraz and Witr Salah in correct order is termed as Tarteeb which is an essential object with respect to praying the daily five Salah. Hence a person should perform Fajr, Zohr then Asr Salah followed by Maghrib Salah and lastly Isha and Witr, whether these Salah are Adaa (performed on-time) or some are Adaa and some are Qaza (not on-time yet before praying next Adaa Salah) then he will be called Sahib-e-Tarteeb.

For example: if a person has missed Zohr Salah, then it is obligatory upon him to perform the Zohr Salah before Asr Salah. It is not allowed if a person deliberately perform the Asr Salah having the knowledge of the missed Salah.

Rule: A person who misses five Salah and the time for the sixth Salah has also terminated, then it is not obligatory to make up these missed Salah. So, he can pray the Adana Salah, regardless of whether he missed the Salah altogether or not.

Rule: to make up missed Salah is more important than preforming Nafil Salah. However a person should cease performing the Taraweeh Salah or Sunnat-e-Mu’akkadah Salah in order to make up any missed Salah.

Rule: If a person dies having not performed his missed Salah and has left an order in his will to pay Friday (ransom) for his missed Salah, then it should be played from one third of the currency or goods left inheritance, one half Sa’aa (approx. one kg) wheat or its prevailing cost to the poor for every Faraz or Wajib Salah missed. If the person who dies has not left anything in inheritance, then next of kin can, to the poor from his own wealth.

29- SALAH OF MUSAFIR

Q46- Who is a Musafir or Traveler in the light of Shariah?

Ans- Musafir; A person who set out by foot on a three days journey from his village, town or city is known as Musafir according to Islamic Shariah.

The meaning of three days does not mean that a person continuously walk from dawn to dusk without pause. Therefore, the distance a person travels in this manner to a far place is defined as a journey.

Q47- At what instance will a person be classed as a Musafir?

Ans- The distance of a journey on dry land for a person to be classed as a Musafir is about Fifty seven and half (57.5) miles.

Rule: A mere intention of travelling will not make a person a Musafir, unless he sets off on a journey and covers the specified distance in the Shariah 57.5 miles. If the bus conductor or train driver or a person has to travel the distance of a specified journey, then they will be classed as Musafir.

Q48- How will a Musafir perform the Faraz Salah?

Ans- It is necessary (Wajib) for a Musafir to do Qasr in his Salah, meaning, a four Rak’ats Faraz Salah will be performed as two Rak’ats. But it will be equal to the 4 Rak’ats in terms of reward.

- If a Musafir (individual) deliberately performs 4 Rak’ats and sits after the two, then the first 2 Rak’ats will be counted as Faraz and the second two will be counted as Nafil Salah. However, such person will be sinful for doing this as he has missed a Wajib action deliberately and thus, he has to repent. If the Musafir does not sit after two Rak’ats, then the full 4 Rak’ats will be counted as Nafil and thus he has to repeat his Salah.

- If the Imam is a Musfair then the Muqeem is allowed to follow him in the Jam’aat. However, after the Imam ends his Qasr Salah (2 Rak’ats), the Muqeem moqtadi (follower) should stand and finish off his remaining 2 Rak’ats without reciting anything whilst in standing position. Rather, he should stand perform the full 4 Rak’ats. For the duration of reciting Surah Al-Fatiha.

- If the Imam is Muqeem and the Muqtadi or follower is Musafir, then the Musafir praying behind such an Imam will perform full 4 Rak’ats.

- There is no Qasr in a Sunnah Salah but it is excused for those who fears time limits or any other problems, for those who has no such fear it is better for them to perform the Sunnah Salah too.

Few important Issues Relating to Fiqh
PART-5

49-Virtuous act of Isaal-e-Sawaab
(Conveying recompense of virtuous deeds)

Q73-How does conveying recompense or Isaal-e-Sawaab mean a virtuous deed?
Ans- Eisaaal-e-Sawaab; This means that when a Muslim prays or performs an act of Allah’s worship, he then can convey its rewards or recompense or Isaal-e-Sawaab to the other Muslim man/men or women/women, dead and alive. Isaal-e-Sawaab has been proven true through sources of Sahi Hadith and fiqh (Islamic Shariah) and also considered to be a virtuous deed.

Q74-What does physical worship and financial worship mean in the context of Isaal-e-Sawaab?
Ans- Physical deeds; this means any forms of worship that does not have money or property involved, for example! Praying Salah or reciting Quran etc. for conveying its recompense.
Financial worship; these forms of worship that include money like Zakaat, performing Hajj or giving Charity or Sadqah acts etc. for conveying its recompense (Isaal-e-Sawaab)

Q75- What does the performing of “Fateha” mean?
Ans- The performing of “Fateha” is a better way of conveying “Isaal-e-Sawaab” and a virtuous deed. In this manner, the recitation of Quran forms a “physical worship” and Sadqah like offering food etc.to the relatives or poor, form the “financial worship”. Thus by way of performing “Fatiha’ a Nafil act, its recompense (Sawaab) are passed on to other Muslim men or women, the alive and dead, form a Isaal-e-Sawaab by offering with a Du’a saying, “Ya Allah the rewards and recompense or Sawaab of this act of “Fateha” may be presented first onto our beloved Prophet r then convey to all Muslims living and deceased particularly to so and so (name the person to whom you like). This is known as “Fateha” a better way of Isaal-e-Sawaab.
50-Obligation of jihad

Q76-When does the Jihad become a General Obligation and when a Precise Obligation?
Ans- Jihad means, to strive to exert oneself, in religious terminology it expresses struggle against one’s evil inclination an exertion for the sake of Allah U. The Jihad does not necessarily mean war or fighting. Nevertheless, the aim of fighting in Islam is not conversion but to spread the message of peace and security of the True-Islam. If the war become unavoidable when the enemy attacks, every efforts must be made to avoid mischief and horror and the Savage practices like disfiguration, torturing the enemies, or killing children, women, old people and cutting or burring trees which are strictly forbidden by Sharia of the Islam in the light of Quran and Sunnah of Rasoolullah r.

When some talented persons make Jihad with their free will, this is a General obligation or “Farz-e-Kifayah”. When the enemy lunches an attack, Jihad becomes Precise Obligation or Farz-e-‘Aain on every Muslim man and woman and child, young and old alike. Allah Y has stressed a lot up on the importance of His ruling that all Muslims are His soldiers guarding Islam. However, such kind of a Jihad is termed as “Jihad-e-Asgha” or Minor-Jihad by Rasoolullah r which is strived during war time only.

Dear Children! You should always strive hard to guard yourselves against false ambitions and desires and evil inclination. Should you know that such type of struggle or “Jihaad” against self (nufs) and Satan is Mandatory (Waajib) on every man and woman and it termed as Major-Jihad or “Jihad-e-Akbar” by Rasoolullah r. This helps us in purification of self (Taskiya-Nufs) to get the pleasure of Allah I.

51-Quran, Hadith and Fiqh

Q77- What do you know about the Quran and Hadith?
Ans- Prophet Muhammad r has been revealed the Quran and Hadith-e-Qudsi through divine revelation from Allah Y. a) The Quran is revealed by “Wahi-e-Jali” (clear or Open-Revelation) in which both the words and the meanings are of Allah U . b) The Hadith-e-Qudsi is revealed by Wai-e-Khfi (concealed-Revelation), in which the meaning is revealed or Ilqah from Allah U but not the exact words. This is a Hadith-e-Qudsi. Allah U mentioned in the Quran;

Inna nahnu nazzalna azzikra wa inna lahu lahafezoon

[Verily We (Allah) revealed this Quran and indeed We alone will safeguard it.] (Al Hijar -9)

Hadith is an Arabic word which translates to “Talks or Baat”. In theTechnical Terminology, it is the compilation of Rasoolullah’s r Saying, Act, Statement and things which he approved etc., that is collectively known as Hadith. Allah Y also says, “وَمَا يَنْتِقِعْ عَنِ الْهَوَى طَنْ هُوَوَاللَّٰئِبُوُيَّحَیَّ " wa maa yantiqu ‘anil- hawaa. In huwa illaa wahyuny-yuhaa

(He, the Prophetr) does not attar on his own accord. It is nothing else than a Revelation revealed to him).

(Najam-3, 4)
Q78- How was the safeguard of Quran and Hadith ensured?
Ans- Hazrat Muhammad r in his lifetime has not allowed the text of Quran and Hadith be mixed up and through the memorizers of Quran i.e. Hufaaz-e-Quran and memorizers of Hadith i.e. Huffaaz-e-Hadith the protection of Quran and Hadith is individually ensured. The Quran was compiled in one complete Book during the of Caliphate Harat Abu Bakr Siddique t. During time of Caliphate Hazrat Osman Ghani t he prepared seven (7) copies of the Quran and distributed it to seven big Mosques of cities of Arabia and they are preserved to this date. The Quran and Hadith have reached us safely through narrators hearing from most reliable narrators.

Q79- What is the difference between the Quran and the Hadith?
Ans- the Quran is Mutwatir or continuously transmitted and Qata’ay or Defined, there is no scope of any doubt or error in it. Whereas, the Ahadith are two types; 1) Mutwatir 2) Ahaad or Transmitted by single narrator.

Mutwaatir Hadith are further divided into two types;
   a) Mutwatir bil- Lefz or Direct Narration   b) Mutwatir bil-M’ana or Indirect Narration.

   a) Mutwatir bil- Lefz (Direct Narration); in this, the words are of Rasoolullah r and were narrated by so many narrators that these Hadith cannot be proven wrong rationally.

   b) Mutwatir bil-M’ana (Indirect Narration); in these Hadith, the words are not shared by many narrators but the meaning remains the same.

   c) Ahaad; There is another type of Hadith called Ahaad which has few narrators. These are opposite to Mutwatir or Definite. Ahaad is a Week-Hadith and cannot be rationally classed as Qat’ai, but it is Zanni (Probable).

   d) Darayat; The Hadith is not only dependent up on Sanad-e- Riwayat (Authentication of Narration), but its Darayat (veracity and consistency of narrators) is also important. Therefore, if a Zayeef -Hadith (Zanni or Probable) contains a vital and valuable evidence (in view of Darayat), then it is Mandatory to act up on it.

Q80- When was compiling of Ahaadith carried out by the Muslim Scholars and the reasons for doing so?
Ans- In the last era of Ta’bayeen (Successors of Sahabah), there was a shortage of honest and noble people as sects like Khwarij and Qadiriya had come up, which were involved in several Bid’at (Innovations in Religion). This is why the Ta’bayeen felt the importance of compiling of Hadith in order to safeguard the Hadith from the wrong hands. Work on this task started which involved Imam Maaiik (95-179 AH) who compiled the Hadith in his book called “Muwatta”. This book consisted of Qavi (Sahih Ahaadith) along with the Aqwaal (Sayings of Sahabah and Ta’bayeen).

After this, A’imam-e-Ahaadith (Scholars of Hadith) prepared Asnaad-e-Ahaadith (Authentications of Ahadith) for recording Hadith in a chronological order (Tkhreej-e-Ahadith). Hence Imam Bukhari read these books, he noticed that these book contained Sahih- Hadith (definite Hadith) and Hasan Hadith (Good chain of Narrators) and Zayeef Hadith (weak chain of Narrators). He believed firmly that there should be a book containing only Sahih Hadith (Hadith which are definite) and accepted without a doubt. This is why, he prepared his authentic and comprehensive book of Sahih-Bukhari. Other Imams have also tried to do the same, but their compilations cannot reach the standard of Sahih-Bukhari. Thus Sahih-Bukhari is the most reliable book for Hadith and is the second most Authentic book in Islam after the Holy Quran.

Q81- Name the Hadith books which are known as “Siya Sattah” and who are their Authors?
Ans- There six A’imma-e- Hadith (Scholars of Hadith) are famous for their authenticity. Their six books of Hadith are;
1. Sahih Bukhri Imam Bukhari, Name: Abu Abdullah Muhammad bin Ismail (ra) (194 – 256 AH).
2. Sahih Muslim… Imam Mslim, Name; Abul Hasan Muslim bin Hujja (ra) (204-261 AH).
3. Tirmidihi… Imam Tirmidhi, Name; Muhammad bin Isa, (200-27 AH).
4. Abu Dawood…Imam Abu Dawood, Name; Sulaiman bin Ash’ad (ra) (202-275AH).

Q82- What does “Fiqh-e-Islam mean, also describe eminence for understanding Quran and Hadith?
Ans- Fiqh-e-Islam means Islamic Law in which Ahkaam-e-Shar’iah are developed. The origin or primary source of Islamic Law is Quran and Hadith. The Hadith is the key of understanding the Quran. It serves as a guide (Sharah) of Quran. Finally, Qiyas (Anology) and jmah (Consensus) serves as a Secondary source of Islamic Law.
It should be remembered that in order to understand the teaching of the Quran and follow it in our lives, it is vital to know the meaning of the Hadith and to understand the Hadith the knowledge of Islamic Fiqh is a must. If someone starts to practice the teachings of Hadith, without the knowledge of Fiqh, he will be in ignorance of the true meaning of the Hadith which may lead him into identifying the Halal as Haram and Haram as Halal which is a grievous act. Thus, he will not only be misleader himself, from the straight path (according to Shariah) but will also mislead others who listen to him.
Therefore one should never make any baseless statements about the Quran and Hadith. Hence, the Sharah (Details) of the Quran is Hadith and though Hadith one can understand and practice the teaching of Quran. On the basis of understanding of Quran and Hadith, the inferring of Islamic Law (conduct of various acts and resolution of issues) is known as Islamic Fiqh or Jurisprudence.
Q83- Name the four Imams of Fiqh (Fuqaha) and give few details about them?
Ans- the 4 Imam-ul-Fuqua are;
1. Imam-e-A’azam, Name; Hazrat Abu Haifa Nu’man ibn Thabit (80-150 AH).
   Delivered Dars-e-Fuqaha (teaching of Fiqh) in Koofah and Iraq
2. Imam Maliki, Name; Hazrat Au Adullah Malik ibn Anas in Malik (95-178 AH).
   Delivered Dars-e-Fuqaha (Teaching of Fiqh) in Madina, Arabiah.
3. Imam Shafa’yi, Name; Hazrat Au Abdullah Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafa’yi (150-204 AH).
   Delivered Dars-e-Fuqaha (Teaching of Fiqh) in Egypt (Misr).
4. Imam Ahmed bin Hamble Name; Hazrat Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Hamal (164-241 AH).
   Delivered Dars-e-Fuqaha (Teaching of Fiqh) in Baghdad, Iraq.
Ulama (Islamic Scholars) throughout the world have recognized and acknowledged their Honesty and Comprehensive Superior Study over Tafaq’qoh (Knowledge of Fiqh). Therefore, all Muslims have confirmed Taqleed-e-Shakhshi (Following in the footsteps) with their teachings. These are known as the 4 Makaatib (4 schools of Thoughts) in which appropriate issues are interpreted accordingly. These 4 absolute A’imma-e-Fiqh (Scholar of Fiqh) interpreted Hadith according to the specified conditions made by them.
The followers (Mu’ataqadeen) of these 4 A’immah are known as;
1. Hanafi (Followers of Imam Abu Hanifa).
2. Shafayi (Followers of Imam Shafayi).
3. Maaliki (Followers of Imam Maalik).
4. Hambali (Followers of Imam Ahmed bin Hambal).
These 4 Masaaliks (Sects) are true and genuine and their sources of interpretations are Quran and Sunnah. All of them perform Salah behind each other and they don’t face inconvenient or difficulties. This is the only valid way.
